

Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act – PPACA

A dollars & cents approach to the impact of Health Care Reform

Shawn Sicilia is a partner in Moloney, O’Neill, Corkery & Jones Benefits LLC, a Spokane Washington based consulting firm working with employers regarding their employee benefit packages.

With over 15 years of insurance industry experience, Shawn combines a unique perspective that includes several years as a consultant as well as additional years on the carrier side, representing Premera Blue Cross.

Shawn graduated with his BA from the University of Washington and earned his MBA from Gonzaga University. He is member of Beta Gama Sigma and former member of the Spokane Association of Health Underwriters.

While utilizing M+O’s proprietary tools and resources, Shawn will demonstrate the practical impact of health care reform as we understand it today
